

Radio Writing Assignment

As you watch the movie...write in your answers.

1. List who the main characters are. Main characters are the characters the movie is mostly about and/or who plays a major role in the movie.

2. List the secondary characters. Secondary characters are people who are part of the movie, but don't carry a lot of importance to the movie story/plot.

3. Find three examples of external conflict. External conflict is when a character struggles with an outside force such as another character, society, animals, or machines. (A fourth example would be worth bonus points)

4. Find three examples of internal conflict. Internal conflict is when a character struggles with their own mind. Struggles with their own needs, wants, or emotions. (A fourth example would be worth bonus points)

5. Describe two different settings in the story. Setting is the time and place in which the events of the movie take place.

6. What is the mood of the movie? Mood is the overall emotion created by the plot and dialogue. Be sure to tell me if the mood changes throughout the movie.

7. Which character do you think grows the most throughout the movie?

Which character do you think grew the least throughout the movie?

8. At what point in the movie did you experience the most suspense? Suspense is the anxiety or nervousness you feel about what is about to happen next.

9. Write a paragraph summarizing this movie.

10. What is the theme of the movie? Theme refers to what truth about life was revealed in the movie. (Examples include love, prejudice, fear, strength, etc.)