The Smallest Dragonboy

Yesterday, we worked to discover several quotes that would help us answer questions using details from our reading. Today, you are ready to answer those questions. You are to use your worksheet from yesterday and you may use your textbook, page 147. Make sure you read each question completely before you begin. Remember, these questions are “map” style questions. Spelling is not a factor in grading, but handwriting must be legible.

Keep in mind...yesterday you looked up quotes from the story. Today, you are not using those quotes exactly; you are rephrasing them into your own words.
