

The Smallest Dragonboy

Art Project

- Today, you will be assigned a partner. You and your partner will be drawing a dragon from our story The Smallest Dragonboy. Your textbook has a few pictures you may use for your drawing, page 147 and 159. Throughout your reading are several descriptions of the dragons, please be sure to think of those as you draw. You may draw any one of the several dragons described.
- Requirements:
 - You will be using a big poster board. Please use all the space. Dragon should take up most of the space available. You will color the background.
 - Your Dragon should be a full body picture.
 - Crayons or color pencils only.
- This project is a contest. The contest is between our classroom partners as well as those in Mrs. Williams' class. The posters will be hung in the hallway for a vote on which is best.
- Not only is this project a contest, it is for a grade. You will be graded on:
 - Following Directions-using space, coloring entire poster, etc.
 - Staying on Task-not distracting others
 - Completing Project on Due Date _____
 - How well you work with your partner.
 - Both partners are working, no one should be idle.
- Suggestions:
 - Brainstorm your idea before you begin.
 - Use pencils to draw first, very lightly so erased marked are not as visible.
 - Make sure you can show your teacher where you're getting your idea of how the dragon looks, either by picture or descriptions.
